"The attention and care I received from the management in making sure all our requirements and needs were met was outstanding. The door staff were the most respectful, polite friendly staff anyone could ask for- they even went along with the theme of the party! The bar staff worked so incredibly hard, my guests all received excellent service. The whole experience was fantastic. My guests had the best night, it was an absolutely wonderful time all thanks to the combined hard work of all the staff."
